Dear Ms. Wessinger-Hill and Parties of Record:

Attached are proposed prefiling dates that may help us in our discussion at 2:00 today. There are two sets of dates. One that follows the Commission's decision in in Order No. 2020-158 that required the hearing to be set "during the first week of October, or as soon thereafter as the clerk's office can schedule a hearing on the merits." The other advances the date of the hearing to accommodate Kate Lee's impending wedding. The thought is that we could agree on both, with the alternative taking effect when the Commission rescinds the existing order as we would expect it would.

The dates here include at least as much time for responsive pleadings as Ms. Wessinger-Hill indicated in her recent email was customary. All due date fall on Tuesdays or Thursdays in keeping with ORS's preference in prior dockets that we avoid Mondays and Fridays. None of the due dates fall during the week of the Fourth of July or Labor Day holiday.

I hope this is helpful to our impending discussions.
